Motion: That the Treasurer's Annual Report be accepted and submitted to Fair Trading.

Moved: Bob Reid

Seconded: Gary Sylvaney

Carried: Unanimously

3.2 President's Report for the year ending June 2023

B.R. stated he would like to recognize and thank a few people: -

- All the Committee for their support and assistance, my job wouldn't have been possible without their help. We achieved a lot this year
- Special thanks to Jonathan for the treasurer's role and advised he was not renominating
- Gary Sylvaney for the huge amount of work he puts into liaising with Council on roads and drainage improvements
- Doug Kohlhoff for the time committed to web site
- And all those community members who help maintain our parks, mow lawns, and do lots of small jobs that not many people know about. Special mention to the Hall Committee, John Fisk, Loal Conroy, Jan Walker and all who volunteer to assist in "Coffee in the Cove", the running and maintenance of the Community Hall. As an Association we want to recognize their efforts and commitment.

Highlights of the year include

- Finishing Yallarwah Park construction
- Potting Shed construction by Garden Group
- The list of NAC projects listed in Open Spaces Council Strategy
- Improved communications with Council
- Stable membership and healthy finances

This is a great community with lots of new residents. We would like to see more participation and involvement in the Association, community projects, working bees etc. Every little thing you do helps., We need a succession policy as B.R., B.H., G.S. won't be nominating next year. Hopefully new people will step up. T.N. expressed his appreciation to B.R. for his years of efforts and driving the Association forward with policies such as Yallarwah, Community Plan, Council submissions.

4. Elections (President, Vice President, Secretary, Treasurer and 3 committee members)

The chair was handed over to Doug Kohlhoff to call for nominations for all positions. Election rules were explained by D.K. He then proceeded to read the nominations

President: one nomination from Bob Reid; duly elected unopposed

Vice President: one nomination from Gary Sylvaney; duly elected unopposed

Secretary: one nomination from Bruce Head; duly elected unopposed

Treasurer: no nomination received.

Committee Members: two nominations received John Kugel and Tim Nolan; duly elected unopposed

Request for an additional Committee Member. Sylvia Marino nominated from floor

Call for a nomination for Treasurer by D.K. . Sylia Marino nominated and was duly elected unopposed
